Steel Strapping - Oscillated

Oscillated Steel Strapping Special High Tension band painted, or gun blue and waxed steel strapping.

Steel Strapping - Ribbon Wound

Ribbon Wound Steel Strapping - Blue or Black painted and waxed steel strapping, this strapping differs from standard bright steel strapping, not only for its higher tensile strength but also for its better elongation.

PET Strapping - Polyester

PET Strapping Polyester has a higher tensile strength than P/P (Polypropylene) strapping and its characteristics are long life, resistant to ultra violet light and weatherproof. One of the great advantages is the high elasticity allowing the strap to remain tense even if the package shrinks after being strapped.

Polypropylene Strapping

Polypropylene strapping has many applications on manual and automatic machines. This strapping can even be used in the food industry, for bricks or newspapers.

Polywoven

Polywoven Strapping is made from high tensile polyester textile bres woven into a very exible and user friendly retensionable product. It is resistant to all weather conditions and UV light. It has a high linear system and capacity to absorb shocks during transport. It is suitable to be used from the lightest application to the lashing of loads.
